COMING IN 2011 @ UA GALLAWAY THEATRE

“Big River” Book (Script) by William Hauptman, Music & Lyrics by Roger Miller

Monday, April 18 — Sunday, April 24, Gallaway Theatre

The adventures of America’s own Huckleberry Finn takes center stage in this adaption of Mark Twain’s timeless classic. With music and lyrics by award-winning country artist Roger Miller and a book by William Hauptman, join us as we travel down the mighty Mississippi as the irrepressible Huck helps his friend Jim, a slave, escape to freedom at the mouth of the Ohio River. Hilarious, suspenseful and heartwarming, follow Huck’s journey as your favorite Twain characters come to life, including the Widow Douglas, the uproarious King and Duke, the sinister Pap Finn, the lovely Mary Jane Wilkes and Huck’s partner in crime, Tom Sawyer. A rousing, high-spirited show that will set your hands to clapping and your feet to stomping as you embark on a voyage of greed, racism, love and understanding in this brilliant theatrical celebration of pure Americana.

Evening performances begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.; matinees are at 2 p.m. Tickets range from $10 to $18. Subscription packages and groups rates are available. Additional ticket information is available by contacting the department of theatre and dance Box Office at 205/48-3400 or by visiting the website at www.theatre.ua.edu.
